Research Papers

Job Market Paper (in progress): Production Networks under Exchange Rate Uncertainty: I extend an endogenous production network model to an open economy to study how exchange rate volatility shapes firms' sourcing decisions, and what this implies for aggregate volatility and welfare.

Working Papers: Currency Depreciations, Credit Spreads and Imported Inputs: I study how emerging and advanced economies respond differently to currency depreciations.

Work in Progress: Rationalizing Shrinkflation (with Vu Cao).
